

SANTA CLAUS' HEADQUARTERS

Santa Is Coming With a Rush

Over at our store he's been and gone already--and if you can believe the testimony of the high-piled, dazzling counters, he's left his whole wonderful bag of gifts behind him.

Never since we've been in business have we been able to offer such a display of things-useful and things-beautiful for the Xmas season.

We're looking for your face here any day now--to pick the choicest of these splendid gifts.

No matter what the budget you make for Xmas giving, be assured that if you shop at our store you'll keep within it by a satisfactory margin. Here are a few of the many suggestions we have to offer you.

If you have ransacked your memory as to what to give to some friends or relatives of yours at Christmas time--something which does not involve the outlay of a heavy expenditure and still will delight the receiver--then we would suggest that you look over the twelve odd Christmas values which we have listed here.

They include gifts that men and women alike are always glad to receive. Special prices have been placed on them in order to give you an opportunity to secure whichever of them you may think appropriate at much less than you had figured on paying.

SLUMBER ROBES,
HOUSE SLIPPERS,
SILK NECKWEAR,

The neckpieces we have received from them for this season's wear are truly delightful to look at--and will add a very important touch to winter outfits. Gratifying small prices are indicated below.

DOLLS THAT MEAN SOMETHING.

Every child wants a doll that is different.

Different dolls--dressed in character costumes to represent many of the popular personages of the hour--can be found on our counters in endless and dazzling variety.

Not one of them but would swell the heart of a child to bursting with joy and pride.

Both the dolls and the prices run from little to big--but always, as the list below makes clear, you will find the doll bigger than the price.

35c TO $7.50.

JEWELRY GIFTS ARE ALWAYS GLADLY RECEIVED.

A gift is something that all are glad to receive, men as well as women; for it is a present that will make the name of the giver cling fondly in the mind of the receiver long after the presentation of it is forgotten. Precious collections of rings, brooches, stickpins, lavalliers, etc., are here in abundance to make selections from. At these low prices.

PRICED 25c TO $3.50.

STATIONERY ALWAYS MAKES ACCEPTABLE CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

Writing paper is something that everyone has use for many times during the week, the month and the year. A gift of a fine box of it would certainly be appreciated. We have it in several good brands of various qualities at various prices.

PRICED 25c to $4.00 BOX.

WHO DOES NOT WANT KERCHIEFS FOR XMAS?

Chorus answers, "Nobody!" Especially nobody will feel disappointed at receiving the handkerchiefs which we have piled up for Christmas shoppers.

Plain or hemstitched, embroidered or tint-bordered, these handkerchiefs all have delightfully moderate price tags.

FOR CHRISTMAS--A PACKAGE OF BEAUTY.

Personal loveliness must always depend in good part on personal care--and that in turn on the intelligent use of up-to-date toilet aids.

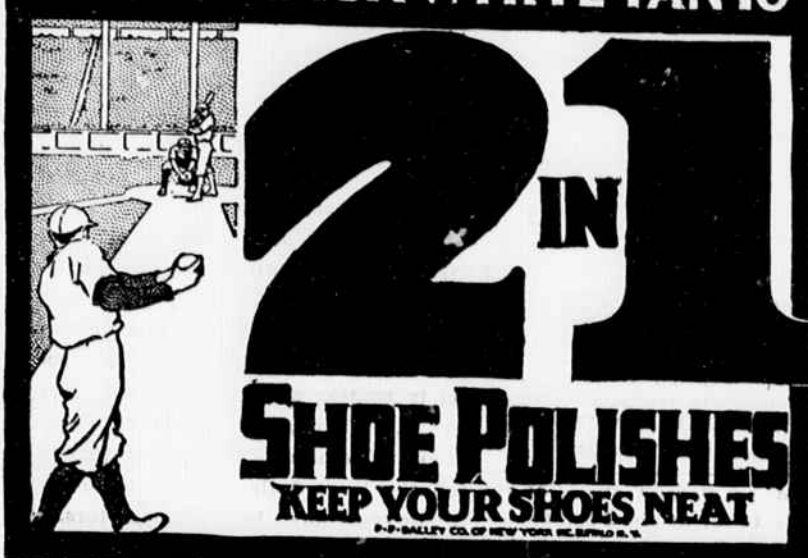

We guess that for a moderate outlay you can hardly please a lady better than by stepping up to our toilet-articales counters and picking a box or bottle or something else pretty from that shining array. Very moderately priced.

They Hear the President.

(Richmond Times-Dispatch.)

When the President of the United States speaks, the whole world listens with strained attention to catch every word he utters. On matters affecting world relations in general, his attitude carries more weight than that of the head of any other government, and in the supreme crisis which civilization now faces his leadership is acknowledged by all governments united in the effort to save it from destruction. The unusual spectacle of an unselfish statesman at the head of an unselfish nation ready to pour out its blood and treasure without limit for the welfare of the whole human race, is one that compels a tribute from all peoples--something never before witnessed in world history.
